EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

DELBERT O'BOYLE MET A FRIGHTFUL DEATH

Struck by an Engine on the Keyser Valley Branch of the D. L. & W. Railroad—His Body Was Terribly Mangled—Harry Davies Has Successfully Passed His Examinations—Young Men of Keyser Valley Have Organized a Hose Company—Personal News Notes.

Delbert O'Boyle, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David O'Boyle, of 363 North Rebecca avenue, was frightfully mangled by an engine on the Keyser Valley branch of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The top of the boy's head was completely severed, his right arm cut clean off at the shoulder, and his left arm was hanging to the shoulder by a few shreds of flesh.

Young O'Boyle, together with two companions, Roy Davis, aged 5 years, and Newton Owens, aged 7 years, left their homes on North Rebecca avenue about 1 o'clock ostensibly to play in the open field on Gammon's hill, but wandered down to the creek, which runs through the culvert, about thirty feet from the bridge shaft, and were floating sticks of wood in the stream, which they had done before. The creek is about ten feet below the surface where the railroad crosses it, and in order to reach the railroad the boys were in the habit of climbing up the retaining wall and crawling through the opening between the ties. Young Owens and Davis had succeeded in reaching the top and were standing on the railroad waiting for the O'Boyle boy to come up.

Engine No. 176 in charge of Engineer Finnian Oram, was coming down the railroad a short distance away, and the two boys yelled to O'Boyle to look out for the engine, and he replied by saying he could get up from the culvert before the engine reached him. In another instant the boy reached out his arms and grasped the ties and raised his head above the tracks just as the engine reached the point, and both his arms were caught by the locomotive, and his head was cut open from the forehead to the back of the neck.

The lad's brains were scattered along the railroad for some distance, and as soon as possible the engine was stopped and the boy's remains gathered together and wrapped up in blankets and then placed in the mine ambulance and removed to his home on North Garfield avenue, where he resided with his mother and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Davis, who were notified of the accident and witnessed the awful death met by the boy.

At my monthly period I suffered untold misery, and a great deal of the time I was troubled with a severe pain in my side. Before finishing the first bottle of your Vegetable Compound I could tell it was doing me good. I continued its use, also used the Liver Pills and Sensitive Wash, and have been greatly helped. DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

YOUNG PEOPLE OF TRIPP CHURCH ENTERTAINED

Rewarded by the Older Members for Noble Work Accomplished—Frank Wagner and Charlotte McLoughlin Married in Stroudsburg—Corporal Pinkney Honorably Discharged and Appointed to a Responsible Position—New Water Supply Needed in the Borough.

To show the appreciation of the work which the young people connected with the Tripp Avenue Christian church did the older people prepared an excellent report last evening in the Sunday school room and invited the workers to an evening of pleasure. The work done by the little ones was to clear the church from debt, which amounted to $315, by going among their friends and soliciting subscriptions. To say they enjoyed themselves would be putting it mildly.

MARRIED IN STROUDSBURG

Frank Wagner, of Elm Drinker street, and Charlotte McLoughlin, of Harper street, were quietly married at the Presbyterian parsonage, Stroudsburg, last Tuesday. They were unattended. After the ceremony they enjoyed a short wedding tour through New Jersey, returning home last evening. They will reside on East Drinker street. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner have a host of friends who wish them much joy.

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Mitchell, who resided here twenty-seven years ago, but now living in Findlay, O., called on many old friends here this week. The petition being circulated asking the Scranton Gas and Water company to supply Dunmore with water, is receiving many signatures. It is understood that the charter of the Scranton company gives them the right to lay pipes through our streets at any time. Would it not be a step in the right direction for the managers of the Dunmore and Forest Hill cemeteries to permit visitors to pass from one to the other through the gate in the fence that divides them? The trouble that caused the prohibition rule now existing, ought to have been overlooked long ago.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Rev. W. G. Watkins will preach tomorrow in the North Main Avenue Baptist church. Morning topic, "Whole-heartedness in Religion"; evening subject, "The Divine Trusting Place the Source of Power for Usefulness." Mr. Watkins will sing a solo in the evening. Bible school at 2 o'clock. Christian Endeavor meeting at 4:30 p. m. The usual services will be held tomorrow in the Providence Methodist Episcopal church. The pastor, Rev. William Edgar, will preach at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; morning subject, "The Struggle at Jabbauch"; evening subject, "A Missing Jewel." Sunday school at 2 p. m.; Epworth league at 6:45.

CORPORAL PINKNEY HONORED

The many friends of Victor Pinkney, the former well known Tribune correspondent and temperance orator, who enlisted in the Eleventh United States infantry and went through the Porto Rico campaign under General P. B. Graham, were pleased to hear he has been honorably discharged as a corporal, and appointed to an important and lucrative position in the office of the governor general in San Juan.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES

A large representation from the Epworth league of Simpson Methodist Episcopal church attended the union services in Elm Park church last evening. Complaint is made by the members of the Epworth league of the Presbyterian church that young boys steal the brass trimmings from the church doors and dispose of it to junk dealers. Several arrests are likely to follow.

ARRESTED FOR FIGHTING

Oscar Davis, of Bellevue, together with his brother, were walking along Main avenue last evening at 9 o'clock when they were accosted by John Dunlevy, of Railroad avenue, who set upon the former and proceeded to pummel him for some alleged grievance. Oscar, who is attracted and Dunlevy ran down Main avenue and was followed by Patrolman Hart, who captured him near Fairchild's hotel. He was locked up in the station house and will be given a hearing this morning.

The Girl of To-day will be the woman of to-morrow. She does not know it, perhaps her mother does not fully understand it, but between the "to-day" when she is a girl and the "to-morrow" when she will be a woman, her life's happiness and health are in the balance. If she is to be a full-breasted, strong, healthy woman she must develop rightly now. She is at a crisis. She needs more strength, more blood to tide it over. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the one medicine that will give her the strength and make her new blood.

Our new book, PLAIN TALKS TO WOMEN, explains why these pills are of special benefit to growing girls. A copy will be sent to any address. FREE on request.

Miss Frances Hathaway, of Sixteenth Street, Holland, Mich., said: "I am 23 years old, at 17 I was pale and weak and did not get under the doctor's care. Other treatment brought no better result and by the time I was twenty years old I was so weak I could not walk across the floor. I was terribly emaciated and my skin had lost all color. The doctor pronounced the disease anemia. One of my friends advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I bought a box and before I had taken all of the pills I found that they were doing me good. My appetite increased and the healthy color began to show in my cheeks and lips. I continued to use the pills until I had taken five boxes and found myself permanently cured. Since then I have remained in the best of health. My old troubles never return when I am so strong and healthy as now. I know that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People saved my life, and I believe that no other medicine could have done so."—FRANKIE HATHAWAY.—Gleason's Times, Holland, Mich.
